

Patrick's Testimony

For several years before I met Pastor Finley of Redemption Baptist Church of Athlone, I had been on a soul search to seek spiritual realisation.

For some years, I was an agnostic, not knowing Jesus Christ. Then I came in contact with Indian gurus, and I sought initiation into the meaning of deep meditation. I attended seminars under the leadership of the maharishi yogi at various venues in Ireland and Europe. However, after some time of deeply meditating, I became disillusioned with this Hindu religion.

Finally, I drifted along aimlessly, and knew the dark night of the soul. Then, on one memorable evening, Pastor Finley called to my house in Athlone.

He gave me a biblical tract, and I agreed to attend Sunday service at Redemption Baptist Church.

As I listened to the pastor's sermon about the woman of Sychar, the "light came on," and I was saved (I put my faith in Jesus Christ).

Since that Sunday a few years ago, I have continued to grow in the love of Jesus Christ. I was baptised, and became a member of Redemption Baptist Church.

I am truly a lover of Jesus Christ.
